

The 2009 Autumn

John W. Holmes Memorial Lecture

La conférence commémorative John W. Holmes – Automne 2009

FEATURED SPEAKER:

Steve Crawshaw

UN Advocacy Director,
Human Rights Watch

“Making an Impact: The Role of Non-Governmental Organizations in a Changing World”

Date: Tuesday, November 17, 2009

Time: 7:30 p.m.

Location: Room 102, Glendon Hall
Glendon College, 2275 Bayview Ave.

Steve Crawshaw joined Human Rights Watch as London director in 2002, and became the organization's United Nations advocacy director in 2006. Before joining Human Rights Watch he worked for many years as a journalist with The Independent which he joined at launch, including as Germany bureau chief, chief foreign correspondent, and foreign news editor. Stories he covered included the east European revolutions, the collapse of the Soviet Union, and the Balkan wars. He studied Russian and German at the universities of Oxford and Leningrad Universities.

He is the author of Goodbye to the USSR (1992) and of Easier Fatherland: Germany and the Twenty-First Century (2004). He is co-author of Small Acts of Resistance: How Courage, Tenacity and a Bit of Ingenuity Can Change the World, to be published in 2010.

RSVP: events@glendon.yorku.ca or/ou 416-487-6727

Seating is limited! / Nombre de places limité.

The lecture will be given in English.

